La Parmigiana della Nonna (1 per 4 guests)
Oven-baked aubergine layered with San Marzano D.O.P tomato, basil and parmesan, just as nonna ordered. In Italy, arguing over this recipe is serious business.

Mortadella Bologna (1 per 4 guests)
Thin slices of the finest Mortadella Bologna IGP, with pistachio, cut to order. Gone from the board before the rest of the table arrives.

Bruschette di Sorrento (1 per 4 guests)
Two crisp slices of bread with datterino tomatoes, garlic, basil, olive oil and chunks of Parmigiano Reggiano D.O.P. The opener that vanishes before everything else arrives.

Gnocchi al Pesto (vegetarian)
Homemade gnocchi with bright green Genoese pesto. Basil aroma guaranteed.

La Nostra Burrata (1 per 2 guests)
Burrata with a touch of pesto and a Neapolitan bruschetta on the side. Creamy at heart, dangerous for the bread.

Creamy polenta with parmesan fondue, porcini and shavings of fresh truffle. Comforting, and with class.

Pizza Diavola (1 per 4 guests)
Salame piccante, San Marzano D.O.P tomato, mozzarella, Gaeta olives and basil. Just hot enough to make itself felt.

✦ Main course · your choice ✦

Cotoletta alla Milanese (confirm 48 h ahead)
Breaded veal with fries and rocket with Sicilian cherry tomatoes. Crunchy outside, happiness inside.

Delizia Mamma Maria
Pasta filled with ricotta and spinach, with pistachio pesto, crispy guanciale, crushed pistachio and parmesan. Our tribute to Mamma Maria; she would approve.

Tortelloni alla Zucca (vegetarian)
Pumpkin tortelloni in a creamy sauce with a hint of truffle. Sweet and savoury at once, like any good surprise.

Nutellotto
Nutella, mascarpone, gluten-free biscuit and pistachios. Quite possibly the most famous dessert in Madrid, and we are not the only ones saying so.
